MIDNIGHT.

UTICA, September 23. Senator Conkling addressed the convention to-day at length. He said one of the catch sayings of our opponents has been that the mission of the Republican party was ended, when slavery and the rebellion ceased. This is a senseless thought: no grave public question would be safe without the Republican party; and the present demoralization and discontent in the south are the result of the great war brought on the people by themselves, misguided and deceived by the leaders of the Democratic party, but much of the present woe of the Southern people comes from the lamentable course of the men who have been freely forgiven by the nation for one of the bloodiest crimes in the book of time. After the surrender of the Southern armies, no man was denied suffrage, not even Jeff Davis, by votes of three-fourths of all the States, the ring-leaders who had taken and broken an oath besides committing treason. were not allowed to hold office unless relieved by Congress, though none who ever applied for relief, was refused, yet this was considered an affront too grevious to be borne and they set to work to make worse their 1 cal affairs, refused to elect reliable men to the Legislature and public offices, deterred capable men from accepting public positions, and tried to prevent secession sympathiclothing and gents' furnishing zers from joining in the restoration to order and prospering in the re-constructed States; they would yield everything to carpet baggers and niggers, who bring contempton the measure that gave suffrage to the blacks and would produce a re-action in the North that would make them masters of the situation. The plot has, however, failed, except in wounding its inventors; bad men have worked their way into places of trust and power and the necessary evils in-sured, but the authors of this mischief are far from relenting, and attempt remedy in violence and revo-lution. The White Leagures, Ku-Klu-Klans, and a war of races, are their remedies. View Louisiana. It is claimed that McEnery was elected, while Keilogg was counted in. Supppose he was; New lork has known at least equal wrongs. It is surely no secret that John T. Hoffman was counted in as Governor, when Griswould was elected. Compare New Louisiana-now. this insurrection triumpned a war of races would have sprung up in every southern State. There are a multitude of war claims made by the southerners on the government for destruction of crops, etc.

An organized attempt was being made to get through Congress an act to have the United States assume the debts of these States. The Democratic party would not resist these treasoning raids, for they always supported all bills for southern war claims, and even Republicans have sometimes allowed justice, and yield questionable petitions, and bills had thus been passed, important in the example they set; but unless falling within certain limits they are vetoed by the able to appear in public for some President A Republican President days yet.

the two lowest bidders having withdrawn their bids. The New York Times correspondent telegraphs the following from New Orleans under date of Septem-

"The public feeling has changed very decidedly, and it is now con-sidered not improbable that a more serious conflict even than that of last week will shortly occur. This morning, when it became generally known that the conference had been broken up, and no result arrived at the young and hotheaded men of the White League took no pains to conceal their feelings, Kellogg and United States Marshal Packard are again denounced openly as thieves and liars, and the Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Cowan, who is charged with having been instrumental in breaking up; the conference is also abused in unmeasured terms. During the afternoon the leaders of the Wnite Leaguers were constantly in session, and it is known that many advised a continuation of hostilities. If they fire on the troops, it is believed that a military government will at once be established in the State. It is known that the business men and capitalists of the clts, who make it no secret of having supported the movement, are opposed to further fighting, and will make no additional donations to the Leaguers. There is no evidence that the southern element wishes to molest private citizens, and besides it is admitted that personal property was never more secure. Gov. Kellogg professes to believe that a war of extermination is to be commenced against the negroes, but Penn asserts positively that such an idea has never been entertained by even the most passionate of the
